SPIRITED RACING PLEASES

EAGLE AND BERTODANO FIGHT OUT A CLOSE FINISH AT A MILE.

Pan Zareta Wins the Sprint at Three-Quarters with Ease—Supreme Proves a Failure and Is Claimed When Beaten.

New Orleans, La., January 29.—Eagle and Bertodano figured in a sharp duel in the mile handicap that featured this afternoon's good program at the Fair Grounds. The two fought it out strenuously and alternated in the lead until in the last few strides, where the Herz representative got his head in front and won the verdict. The race was disappointing from the fact that Hanovia, the staunchly supported favorite, brought up in last place. During the middle half she made a challenge and seemingly could have gone into the lead, but quit unexpectedly in the stretch.

The sprint handicap at three-quarters held equally as much interest as the mile handicap, due to the presence of Pan Zareta and other good sprinters in the race. The "Texas Marvel" raced in her usual game fashion and won out gallantly. She had to overcome interference on the first turn and go around the leaders, but in the stretch she easily held them all safe.

The prospect for good sport, coupled with summery weather was responsible for the presence of the full strength of race-goers in these parts, besides many first-time visitors at the Fair Grounds.

Track conditions were vastly improved, but the going still fell short of being at its fastest. The racing was spirited.

Favorites were in eclipse, Pan Zareta being the only first choice to score. The winners, however, found generous support, speculation being uniform and sound throughout the afternoon. Batwa's success in the opener resulted profitably for the price-quoters, as did Ella Bryson's victory in the second. Lohengrin was backed in this race with great confidence, but he ran a dull race. Supreme's failure in the fifth was also costly to the public.

J. J. McCauley claimed Supreme after the fifth race for $600.

John W. Schorr intends to sell Lindenthal, Goldcrest Boy, Syrian, Pleasureville, Ratina, Eddie Delling, Politician and Gretchen R. by auction next week.

The H. O. Comstock dispersal sale, at which fourteen head will be offered, will take place next Saturday. G. A. Cochran will also dispose of the youngsters that trainer W. R. Midgely has here.

Trainer James Johnston has again taken over Republican to train.

Many of the prominent business houses will give silver cups next week to the winners of the races named in their honor and also expensive prizes to the winning jockeys.

J. McCormack departed tonight for New York, where he will assume charge of the horses owned by James Butler.

THOROUGHBRED EFFICIENCY IN WAR.

I was talking to an old cavalry officer the other day and he said that in his opinion the reason that the allies did not do better in the Balkans was that they went there prepared for the same kind of fighting as they are having in France and Belgium, and at Gallipoli. Had they had more horses and more horse-soldiers, they would have done infinitely better was his way of looking at things. It was not trench-fighting that was required in Serbia, but dash and vigor. For that style of warfare in a hilly country horses are of the first importance, and the allies sent infantry and artillery almost exclusively. Neither could move with that celerity that was required, and the mounted troops of Austria-Hungary principally, and Bulgaria, overwhelmed the opposing forces. In this gentleman's views it is one more blunder that has to be put down to the allied chiefs. Then, I said, you don't think the day of the horse in war has passed? "Passed," he replied, "No, it is more important than ever. Mobility has given the Germans success in Europe, and aided the Turks in Arabia. It also made possible the march through Serbia, and it will enable the Russians to come back. And in no case is this mobility due entirely to the motor car and the railways. The greater use of horses would have checked the German advance in the first instance. As things are on the western front and the usefulness of the horse for the moment is lost in a measure, but it will return, while elsewhere he is as valuable as ever. When the history of the war comes to be comprehensively written it will be found that horsemanship was a big factor in the Italian advance into Austria."

The foregoing conversation led to a discussion as to why more horses had not been bought in Canada. My cavalry friend said at once that this was because the right sort of horses was not to be found in the country. The work horse was fairly numerous, but the proper sort of animal for mounted troops was decidedly scarce. We did not make sufficient use of the thoroughbred. I suggested that there should be many animals with thoroughbred blood in them. "Yes," he replied, "plenty of racing of a sort; but three-fourths of the competitors are either owned or have been bred abroad, and are raced and hawked about until they become shadows, and are of no earthly value when they come to be retired." In answer to a request as to what remedy he would suggest for this state of things, my friend said: "Prohibit two-year-old racing until the autumn; limit the sprints and the number of times a horse may start in a season; curtail the half-milers and compel the associations to give more races for home-bred and home-owned horses."

Returning to the matter of the war-horse, I remarked. "Then you think thoroughbred blood is a necessity to the charger?" "Beyond doubt," was the reply, "he will rush into danger and face the battle where colder-blooded animals will turn tail and stampede. They face danger with greater determination and by proper handling can be better instructed in the duties required of them." And then the gentleman turned his batteries on me by asking what had become of the project mooted before the war to establish a big remount depot, with breeding and educating facilities, in the northwest. My ignorance in the matter being profound, I answered accordingly, but I also agreed that there could be no better or more fitting time for getting the enterprise under way.—H. P. MAY W. STILL AN UNDEFEATED FILLY.

El Paso, Texas, January 29.—Today's racing was ordinary, the redeeming feature of the card being the two-year-old race in which F. D. Weir's good filly May W. maintained her undefeated record and scored her third victory.

R. M. Stevens, who holds the catering privileges at the Juarez track, arrived today from New York. He will remain about ten days and return via New Orleans.

Tom Hatfield has sold Type back to Frank D. Weir and purchased Lad from A. E. Morgan.

Beginning with the races of Tuesday, February 1, beaten horses will be subject to the claiming rule.

Jockey McCown was set down for five days by the stewards on a report of the patrol judge.

Jockey Howard was suspended by the starter for ten days in the third race and by the stewards for five days for rough riding in the first race.

MORE LEXINGTON HORSES IN TRAINING.

Lexington, Ky., January 29.—Gallaher Brothers now have twenty horses in training at the Kentucky Association course, thirteen of them being two-year-olds, of which the bay colt by Duval—Trance is considered the most promising. Seven older horses in the string are: Howdy Howdy, Just Y., Vogue, Col. McNab, Little Sister, Beauty Shop and Amulet.

At E. R. Bradley's Idle Hour Farm Cliff Hammon has taken up Bradley's Choice, Black Toney, Bars and Stars, Bob's Olga, Blind Baggage, Desmond's Day, May Bird and six two-year-olds.

Hal Price Headley this week purchased from E. L. Davis the Himyar mare Ferrol, to be mated with Uncle.

Wind Thistle has a bay colt by Plaudit at John H. Morris' Bosque Bonita Farm.

FAST SPRINTERS DRAW A BIG CROWD.

Havana, Cuba, January 29.—A special race between some of the best sprinters here, including Imperator, Iron Mask, Nathan R. and King Worth, drew a large crowd to Oriental Park this afternoon. It furnished a stirring contest and resulted in a victory for Imperator, which beat Iron Mask by a head. The latter was in close quarters in the first half mile, but for which he probably would have won. Imperator's victory was greeted with great cheering, as he is owned by a Cuban.

Maxim's Choice came out of his race yesterday lame. He stepped on a stone during the running and will be a non-starter for a couple of weeks.

Jockey M. Mountain was suspended for fifteen days for rough riding in the sixth race.

LOFTUS A FAVORITE AT JUAREZ.

Next to Wilhite, the racer at Juarez to make the best impression lately is Loftus, which has won his last four starts in a row and there is no question that this son of Dick Welles—Edna Shannon is a racer of merit. He possesses a fine turn of speed and also stays his races out well. In one of his last winning performances he carried 115 pounds and wore the flying Seneca down at the latter's favorite distance of five and a half furlongs. As is well known, he is named for the noted rider, J. Loftus, who was in the employ of the gelding's breeder, J. B. Respess, when the son of Dick Welles was foaled.

FRANCE ACCEPTS GIFT OF BLARNEY.

Paris, France, January 29.—Le Journal Officiel prints a decree announcing that the state accepts the late H. B. Duryea's gift of the thoroughbred stallion Blarney, which will be placed in the national stud. The decree is signed by President Poincaire and countersigned by the minister of agriculture.

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING THREE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1915

In the racing of 1915 four three-year-olds won $10,000 or more, they being The Finn, $17,985; Regret, $12,500; Royal II., $12,245, and Waterblossom, $10,403. That the earning capacity of our horses has been greatly decreased is a matter of common knowledge, but the extent of its curtailment is not so well digested. In the way of a contrast with a more prosperous time for racing, it may be pointed out that so lately as 1909 the four leading three-year-olds won the following vastly greater amounts: Joe Madden, $44,905; Sweep, $41,323; Hilarious, $36,585, and Fitz Herbert, $34,757. However, the owners of today are probably about as well content with what they do win as were the successful owners of 1909. Outside of Regret, it cannot be correctly said that the three-year-olds of 1915 were of high class, but according to their natural gifts they raced well enough to delight the thousands who witnessed their endeavors in competition. The records of the thirty leaders in money won were:

MEANS HIGH CLASS RACING

SANFORD AND MACOMBER HORSES PREPARING FOR CAMPAIGN ON KENTUCKY TRACKS.

Star Hawk and Hesperus to Be Kentucky Derby Candidates—Many Stables Being Taken Up for Early Training.

Lexington, Ky., January 29.—John Sanford, the master of Hurricana Stud, according to a letter received from him this week by Secretary G. D. Wilson, will begin his racing campaign of 1916 at Lexington. He made a request for stake blanks and a reservation of stalls for the string Preston Burch will prepare at Charleston.

Another whose horses will campaign in Kentucky this year is A. K. Macomber, a wealthy young Californian, who bought last fall in England from J. B. Joel, three three-year-olds and thirteen two-year-olds, which are counted the best single collection of thoroughbreds for racing purposes to have crossed the Atlantic in many years. This string is now at Charleston in charge of Walter B. Jennings and it is known here that this highly-experienced horseman considers them far superior to any string of horses of like age he has ever trained. Jennings not long ago told a friend from Lexington, who stopped at the South Carolina metropolis to see him and his horses, that he has no doubt that Mr. Macomber will realize his hope for the development of a great stock horse out of this string. It may be that the slashing bay colt Star Hawk, which has been picked to carry the new owner's colors in the Kentucky Derby, will prove the most valuable of the collection for breeding purposes. He is a son of Sunstar and Sweet Finch (sister to Cunard) and $20,000 was paid for him by Mr. Macomber. A second string to the gentleman's bow for the Derby will be Hesperus, a brown colt by Sunstar out of Our Lassie, an Oaks winner. The Cock is the name of the other three-year-old. He is a chestnut colt by Poussin, out of a daughter of the Derby winner Volodyoski. The following is a list of the thirteen two-year-olds, ten of which are fillies, which, it is said, are intended for breeding purposes at Walnut Hall Farm when their racing days are over:

Bay colt by Sunflower II.—Waterweed.
Bay colt by Sunstar—Dreamy.
Bay or brown colt by Sunstar—Our Lassie.
Bay filly by Sunflower II.—Lavierge.
Bay filly by Sunflower II.—Bright Cherry.
Bay filly by Sunflower II.—All Green.
Bay filly by Sunstar—Marian Hood.
Bay filly by Roquelaure—Sweet Maiden.
Bay filly by Buckwheat—Money Down.
Brown filly by Sunstar—St. Olive.
Chestnut filly by Sunflower II.—Fair Lassie.
Chestnut filly by Sunstar—Sweet Story.
Chestnut filly by Cicero—Prepare.

James Hukill will this year train the thoroughbreds that are to carry the colors of J. Hal Woodford, of Paris. He was here this week and made arrangements with superintendent James P. Ross for stalls for six horses, one of which will be the good mare Droll, he will bring to the Kentucky Association course from Bourbon County next Monday. Hukill, for several years past, trained and drove trotters, but he is not lacking in experience with the runners.

Howard Oots, who trained the J. Hal Woodford racers for several years, has a string of twenty-seven, including fourteen English two-year-olds, which are to run in his name and which are keeping him busy at the local track.

James Stevens will come to the track Monday with four horses, including Wadsworth's Last.

Thomas C. McDowell is confined to his home with la grippe.

J. W. Parrish has secured Midway as the name for the two-year-old chestnut colt by Ballot—Thirty-Third (dam of Buckhorn). Midway is the name of the town on the outskirts of which Parrish has a fine home. Midway is half-way between Lexington and Frankfort, in Woodford County, "the asparagus bed of Kentucky" as Senator Joe Blackburn calls it. Midway was bred by Clay Brothers and was the star of their sale at Tattersalls in September. Parrish paid $3,000 for him. He is eligible to the local Breders' Futurity and to the Futurity.

"Farmer Bill" Scully, who has been here all winter, has Pin Money and his two-year-old sister, a likely-looking filly by Bryn Mawr—Pins and Needles, in training at the Kentucky Association course. Pin Money is doing well.

William Wallace and J. W. May will ship their strings to Louisville next week. Wallace has Big Smoke, with which he hopes to win the Kentucky Derby, and the useful Pockichoo. May has five horses including Cohmic, Bayberry Candle, Malabar, Onota and a two-year-old colt by Masetto.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF.

Trainer Snyder, who has been abroad about three years, returned to New York by the Lord Erne, which brought over the French-bred two-year-olds from August Belmont's Haras de Villers.

The imported French-bred filly, Vistula, by Flint Rock—Lady of the Vale, one of H. M. Maxwell's purchases at the recent dispersal sale of the Belmont two-year-olds, is sick at Durland's, in New York.

The six French-bred two-year-old colts by Yankee, brought over for Thomas Hitchcock, and six French-bred two-year-olds belonging to Ambrose Clark, have been sent to Aiken, S. C., to receive their racing education.

A high opinion is entertained of an Ultimus two-year-old colt owned by Samuel Ross of Washington, D. C. This colt is said to be fine looking and is credited with having run a quarter from the quarter post to the stand through the deep sand of the old Benning track in twenty-four seconds.

David Gideon's promising two-year-old filly by Ogden—Her Majesty, was recently on the sick list at Gravesend, but has fully recovered, and is now doing nicely. It is reported that Mr. Gideon is carrying a ten thousand dollar insurance policy on this filly, of which Gravesend trainers entertain a high opinion.

C. K. G. Billings and Frederick Johnson have started on a trip to California. The valuable English two-year-olds which were purchased for them in England by Charles T. Patterson, are now on the Billings stock farm at Curl's Neck, Va., where they are being trained by Patterson. They are reported to be doing finely.

One of the favorites in Frank Nolan's Beverwyck Stable is the two-year-old colt, Dreadnaught, by The Commoner—Touch Not. This is a large brown colt marked with a blaze and white off hind foot. He is a colt of high finish, and as he is a brother to such good ones as Notasulga and Great Britain, good things are naturally expected of him. He is wintering splendidly.

Edward Johnson, the old-time American trainer, who brought over a consignment of six English-bred fillies from the Langdon Hill Stud, has returned to England. Two of these fillies, Mary Littleton, 3, by Littleton—Merry Wing, and Landstock, 3, by Land League—Australian Daisy, which were purchased by F. Ambrose Clark, have been shipped to Aiken, S. C., along with six other thoroughbreds belonging to F. Von Stade, amateur steeplechase jockey.

NATIONAL HUNT RACING IN ENGLAND.

That racing under National Hunt Rules can be conducted without loss under such restrictions as are at present in force, has now been amply demonstrated. The great success achieved by Messrs. Pratt & Co. at Gatwick on New Year's day, in face of the most unpropitious weather conditions, afforded every indication that this would be the case, but for obvious reasons it would have been imprudent to base any definite hopes for the future merely in consequence of what happened at one meeting. Now, however, that there is the additional experience furnished by a two-day gathering at Lingfield to serve as a guide, it is possible to come to a just conclusion. Friday's attendance was naturally rather smaller than that at Gatwick, but the extra numbers anticipated, were duly forthcoming on the second afternoon, when, in all probability, the returns were such as to ensure a small profit being made on the meeting. Certainly the array of motors was a strong one, while between races the paddock bore so animated an appearance that anyone might well have been excused for fancying that flat racing, instead of steeplechasing, was in progress. Everything in connection with the gathering passed off most satisfactorily, and if a few unsportsmanlike individuals, having been detected in the act of travelling by rail, were refused admission, they have only themselves to blame. This firmness on the part of the executive should have the salutary effect intended, and will be continued so long as the government consider there is any fear of railway traffic being hampered.—London Sporting Life of January 10.

NEW FRENCH RACING PROPOSAL.

The Societe Sportive d'Encouragement of France, which has already allocated a sum of 2,000 sovereigns for the National Stud Administration's competition for saddle horses, now proposes to offer prizes to the value of 4,000 sovereigns for a series of classification tests for race horses. The society's proposal will be submitted to the French ministry of agriculture, where it seems likely to be well received, since the stud authorities realize the gravity of the crisis in the French breeding industry. The races proposed would be of particular value to the small breeders, who are at present keeping in their stables a number of horses of whose real value they are ignorant. After these horses had competed with others of their own class trainers would have a valuable indication of their real quality, sales would be facilitated, and the National Stud authorities would have some working basis for the making of future purchases. The Societe Sportive d'Encouragement's suggestion is that forty-eight races should be held, four a day, on twelve days in April, May, June and July of next year. They would take place at Maisons-Laffitte, the French training center, which, being within easy access of Paris and having an enclosed course, would be particularly suitable for the purpose. The meetings would be open only to trainers, breeders and others professionally interested.—London Sportsman.

WEIR FILLY WHICH MAY MAKE GOOD.

Jockey Loftus, now a man of family, has a little daughter two years old and the filly Eleanor Marie, in F. D. Weir's stable at Juarez, is named for this little miss. This filly has not as yet won, having only started twice, but her owner thinks she will make good when her racing education is more advanced. She has been hard to school at the barrier, but in all her training has shown a burst of speed. She is by the English-bred horse Cyclades, a son of the mighty Cyllene.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

Berlin claims a substantial success in a bloody attack on the French trenches, the official war office statement saying: "To the northwest of the farm of Laerolie, northeast of Neuville, German troops stormed 1,500 yards of the enemy's trenches, taking prisoner 237 men, including one officer, and capturing nine machine guns. Several French attacks against the position near Neuville, recently taken by the Germans, broke down, but the enemy succeeded in occupying the second mine crater. In the western section of Saint Lauret, near Arras, the Germans stormed and took from the French a group of houses. South of the Somme the Germans conquered the village of Frise and 1,000 yards of the position connected with it to the southward. The Germans took twelve officers and 927 French soldiers, all unwounded, and captured thirteen machine guns and four mine throwers. South of Apremont, to the east of the Meuse, an enemy aeroplane was shot down by German artillery. The pilot was killed and the observer severely injured."

A dispatch of yesterday from Saloniki says: Detachments of marines from British, French, Russians and Italian warships in the harbor here landed at daybreak Friday on the Karaburun peninsula under the guns of their ships and occupied the Greek fort there. The garrison of the fort offered no resistance, but the commander of the troops entered a protest at being compelled to evacuate. At the same time as the naval landing, French infantry surrounded the fort and neighboring habitations. Buildings were searched and the inhabitants ordered removed. This action by the entente allies was dictated by strategic reasons and the undesirability of having the fortress in other hands than their own. Another reason for the landing was that it was believed that German submarines obtained supplies in the vicinity of this coast.

A dispatch of yesterday from San Diego, Calif., says: "At least fifty persons are believed to have been killed late today when the lower Otay Valley dam broke, releasing a wall of water thirty feet high. Scores of people are missing. Houses on twenty-five ranches were swept away. All wires are down and roads impassable. It is feared it may be impossible to get food to refugees for several days. The property loss will amount to at least $1,000,000."

The Rome Giornale Italia's Athens correspondent says the Italians have decided to abandon Durazzo, Albania, owing to the fact that its defense presents most serious difficulties. Essad Pasha has effected a junction with the Italian forces in Albania. He is fortifying positions at Avlona and other points further south in Albania, and is confident that he will be able to stop the advance of the Austro-Hungarian forces.

Great Britain is sowing mines so thickly at the entrance to the Baltic sea that it now is practically impassable except to vessels under guidance of official pilots, Consul General Skinner at London reported to Washington yesterday. Obstructions to navigation also have been placed between the Danish territorial waters and the German coast southeast of Rixhoft.

The world's fair fund, held in trust since 1893 by Mrs. Potter Palmer and now amounting to $100,000, was formally presented Friday afternoon to the School of Domestic Arts and Sciences by Mrs. George Bass, one of the committee of three appointed by Mrs. Palmer two years ago to make final disposition of the fund.

Russian correspondents on the western front have sent word to Petrograd that the Germans are manufacturing a new twenty-two-inch gun for use in the spring campaign. Petrograd dispatches also estimate that two army corps of Turks ars shut up in Erzerum.

Brigadier General George Benjamin Hodson of the Indian army, who was wounded in the fighting on Gallipoli peninsula, has died of his injuries at Malta.
